BURNHAM OVERY TOWN is a pretty, unspoilt village with a distinctive square-towered Norman church, St Clements, found approximately one mile from the sought after north Norfolk village of Burnham Market.

Burnham Market has a large village green surrounded by 18th Century houses and a good range of shops and services including doctors' and dental surgeries, a butchers, fishmongers and delicatessen, a wine merchants, several clothes shops and several excellent hostelries and restaurants. There is excellent sailing nearby at Burnham Overy Staithe and Brancaster Staithe. Both Brancaster, home of the The Royal West Norfolk Golf Club, and Hunstanton have renowned golf courses and the whole coastline falls within an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, internationally famous for its bird reserves and sandy beaches.

There is a mainline rail connection from King's Lynn (22 miles) to London Kings Cross in about 97 mins.

Crooks Cottage is a short walk from Gong Lane, a track that runs for a mile through farmland to Burnham Overy Staithe and the coastal path.
