WELLS-NEXT-THE-SEA is a traditional fishing port situated on the north Norfolk coast, an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. The town is a popular seaside destination and provides many amenities and attractions, with sandy beaches, a natural harbour and beautiful walks as well as individual shops, public houses and excellent restaurants. Holkham Hall, a Palladian stately home set in parkland grounds which are open to the public, is situated two miles to the west.

Six miles away is Burnham Market, a pretty, Georgian village with a further range of individual shops and hostelrys.

The High Street chains are to be found in the nearby market town of Fakenham.

There are many other attractions in the immediate vicinity, such as the Royal Estate of Sandringham, Houghton Hall and of course mile upon mile of sandy beaches, creeks and marshes which stretch along the north Norfolk coast from Old Hunstanton to Blakeney. The coast offers pretty villages, RSPB reserves, links golf courses and many excellent pubs and restaurants to sample as well as walks and good sailing from a number of pretty, natural harbours.

Catesby Court is situated within a designated Conservation Area.
